CONSIDER PETITION TO ABOLISH R. R. COMMISSION

Directors of C. of C. Take Up Consideration of Plan of Initiative Action

Consideration of the advisability of circulating a petition here asking the abolition of the state railroad commission, a move started in Long Beach since gas, telephone and Pacific Electric fares have been raised, was one of the principal items of business before the Chamber of Commerce directors here this afternoon.

In a sample petition forwarded by the Long Beach Chamber of Commerce, it asks initiative action by which the present powers of the state commission will be placed in supervisory hands of each county. Now that the people have cause to believe their interests have not been duly protected, it is said that patrons of public utilities are taking the opportunity to amputate another of the numerous California commissions.

A referendum from the United States Chamber of Commerce regarding the soldiers' bonus also came before the board while an invitation to the membership was extended by the high school which throws its gymnasium open to the tired business men on school nights.

ENGINEER SAYS SANITARY DISTRICT TAKING IN LARGE PART OF COUNTY IS SOLUTION OF SEWAGE PROBLEMS

Frank H. Olmsted Gives His Opinion at Meeting Held Last Night; Present Plans of Council Are Dropped; Resolution Unanimously Adopted

FORMATION of a sanitary district to include the larger part of Los Angeles county will be the final solution of the sewage problem faced by eighteen cities in the San Gabriel watershed. That was the expression of opinion by Frank H. Olmsted of the firm of Olmsted & Gillette, sanitary engineers, at a meeting held in the high school last night for the purpose of considering proposed sewer plans for this city.

Attorney Mattison B. Jones presided and called upon Attorney W. E. Evans for the report of the business men who met yesterday morning, a full account of which was in The Glendale Evening News last night.

With one or two exceptions the work accomplished—definite assurance that there will be no sewer farm planned for any section of the city until the public has been fully informed—found favor, although several citizens appeared to be well prepared for speeches on the subject.

John D. Reavis, a real estate agent who has recently located here, showed that he was experienced with the subject, having been president of the Trunk Line Outfall Sewer commission when he was a resident of Alhambra. It took him to tell about a sewer farm.

Meeting at Pasadena

An opportunity to again set this outfall sewer idea going again is offered at the Regional Planning Conference called for January 21 at Pasadena by the board of supervisors, it is said. The purpose of this meeting is to dovetail the interests of the southern sections of the county in all matters of improvement.

Alex Mitchell, in one of his customary speeches, dramatically told how Engineer Goudie of the State Board of Health would lead Glendale into annexation if it didn't look out; Engineer Olmsted showed the tremendous cost to the city in assuming Los Angeles' bonded indebtedness and told of the inability of the present outfall sewer; and Attorney A. I. Abrahams, representing the Hahne estate, urged that all good Glendale citizens get behind the council and enlarged sewer committee in solving the problem.

Resolution Is Adopted

Assemblyman John Robert White acted as another peace-maker, offering the following resolution:

"In view of the report of the resolutions committee now on file that

WON'T KEEP VOLSTEAD ACT IF SEWER FARM IS PLACED NEAR HIM

Alex Mitchell of Kenneth Road, receiver of the United States Land Office, has such a sense of humor in speaking publicly that Glendale people who know him refuse to take seriously this venerable warhorse of many a political campaign.

At the meeting last night wherein sewers were discussed pro and con he solemnly said:

"I won't keep the Volstead act any longer if they put a sewer farm in my district."

"If it's a thing of beauty, why not give it to the east side to go along with the high school?"

"I can't see why they called off this mass meeting when everybody knew Mr. Mitchell was going to be here to talk," commented Assemblyman John Robert White.

After the meeting John D. Reavis, who claims to be Scotch, accused Mr. Mitchell of being an Irishman, but not to his face. There might have been one less Scotchman this morning if he had.

We approve the action of the city council in dropping the present plans for sewerage disposal, we approve their appointment of an enlarged committee for the consideration of the problem confronting this and surrounding cities; we also approve the city council's judgment in taking no action without taking all citizens into their confidence."

With the unanimous adoption of the resolution, Mr. Olmsted was called upon to speak and everybody got home before 9 o'clock.

District Superintendent and Others at Conference at Church Last Night

A conference to discuss the quarter of a year between October and December 31 was held last night at the First Methodist church.

Dr. W. L. Y. Davis of Pasadena, superintendent of Methodist churches in this district, presided. He complimented Dr. C. M. Crist and Carl Seitter, director of religious education, upon their reports. Also, he congratulated the church upon its excellent conditions along all lines.

Attention was called to the fact that the Ladies' Aid Society has made more calls and raised more money than any similar society in the district during the past year. The fact was brought out, also, that in 1921 the Glendale Methodist church led all others in the district in increased memberships. Reports showed that the Sunday school enrollment has increased from 403 in 1917 to 877 in 1921; that benevolences contributed by the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society have advanced from $325 in 1917 to $1174 last year; and for the Woman's Home Missionary Society from $378 in 1917 to $1344 in 1921.

CITY NEARLY DOUBLES IN GROWTH IN LAST TWO YEARS; FIGURES ARE GIVEN OUT AFTER CAREFUL CHECK

With More Than $5,000,000 in Building Permits
During 1921, Continued Prosperity is Assured; Directory to be Distributed Here Shortly

GLENDALE'S population for January 1, 1922, is announced today as 25,730 by Jack Fitzgerald of the Western Directory company, Long Beach, publishers of the current city directory. In a long distance telephonic communication with The Glendale Evening News he announced these figures with great gladness as it indicates that this city has nearly doubled in population since the federal census in 1920. Mr. Fitzgerald states that the customary percentages have been used in arriving at this figure and it is based on the careful canvass of the city. The directory will be ready for delivery in two weeks, he adds.

It is gratifying, indeed, to the residents of Glendale to know that this city has made close to 100 per cent progress in two years' time. However, this was indicated by the more than $5,000,000 building permits issued during 1921.

The news of Glendale's great growth has been flashed to the world by The Glendale Evening News over the International News Service leased wire. How about writing your friends in the east this very day and impressing them with these figures.

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

We Eat Too Much Meat Which Clogs Kidneys, Then the Back Hurts

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a teaspoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is "harmless," inexpensive, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.—Advertisement.

Woman Wins Her Fight for Her Sex in U. S. Postal Service

WASHINGTON — Elimination of discrimination against married women in the postoffice department, which has just been announced by Postmaster General Will H. Hays, is the direct result of efforts made by Mrs. Helen Hamilton Gardener, the only woman who has ever held office as Civil Service Commissioner. Mrs. Gardener asked Hays for a square deal for her sex—and she got it. The Postmaster General decided that a woman employee of the department does not change her status or lose any rights in the postal service because of marriage.

Before Hays handed down this decision, when an unmarried woman holding the position of postmaster married she had to obtain a new appointment, execute a new bond, or pass the required civil service examination in competition with other candidates seeking the office. Under the new ruling the woman postmaster who marries will continue to hold the office without a reappointment or another examination.

Sets Precedent

Similar controversies have arisen all over the country where women are employed in the public service, particularly as school teachers. In the latter cases it frequently has been held that women who marry forfeit their positions as teachers. The ruling of Postmaster General Hays will set a precedent in the Federal service and will no doubt have an important effect in establishing for women the full rights of citizenship intended to be conferred by the Nineteenth Amendment to the Constitution.

In a letter to the Postoffice Department referring to the old order discriminating against women, who marry as an "archaic situation," Mrs. Gardener continued: "I deem it exceedingly important, both in the interest of the service and in the interest of the development of women, not to mention the interest of the Postoffice Department, to work out some ruling which will correct the obviously unjust condition."

Mrs. Gardener's statement of the case won instant approval of the solicitor of the Postoffice Department and the old order was speedily revoked by Mr. Hays upon the recommendation of his legal adviser, who declared that he saw "no adequate legal reason why marriage of postmasters or of other women employees should of itself affect the tenure of office."

American Division of 'Invisible Army' Ready for Service

By MILDRED MORRIS
Copyright, 1922, International News Service.

NEW YORK, Jan. 17.—An American division of the "invisible army" of Ireland is in existence and has been for more than two years, it was learned by the International News Service.

Companies have been drilling regularly in cities throughout the United States under orders of the chief of the Irish republican army and have been prepared for call to Ireland and take up arms without any inkling of these activities leaking out until now.

Members of the "invisible army" in this country number between 25,000 and 30,000, according to conservative estimates from authoritative sources.

The most amazing fact disclosed is that detachments sailed to Ireland from time to time without the knowledge either of the British or the American authorities. It is known that four companies from Philadelphia got away and it is estimated that altogether between 2000 and 3000 members of the "invisible army" on this side landed in Ireland and fought for the Irish republic. How they got across, no one with the information will disclose.

Queries to persons in a position to know bring the answer:

"They went in the same mysterious way as De Valera came and went."

A number of them, it was learned, were members of the 69th regiment of New York, which distinguished itself in the World War. Many were Americans without Irish blood, it is claimed.

The utmost secrecy has guarded every movement of the "invisible army." It is understood that the members, who call themselves "Irish volunteers" take an oath of secrecy and swear to support the Irish republic.

They cannot disband their companies until they receive orders from Ireland, it is said, and have continuing to drill in their secret assembly places since the treaty with England was ratified. It is not believed they will be ordered to disband but will be kept in training as long as the chiefs of the "invisible army" in Ireland think it necessary.

The largest companies of the American division are said to be in New York, Chicago, Boston, San Francisco and Philadelphia.

STATE'S GOLD STORY FROM '49 TO NOW MOST ROMANTIC

Days of Early Pioneers When Gold Dust Was Only Money
Recalled by Numismatist

By ELLIS H. MARTIN
Written for International News Service
SAN FRANCISCO—Money is always interesting.

And no story of money is more interesting than those of San Francisco's Anglo Saxon rebirth, when banks and financial houses issued their own money and a government thousands of miles away in distance and many months in time complacently permitted the practice.

San Francisco still makes her own money, but now in a United States mint which has coined close to $3,000,000,000 in domestic and foreign pieces since it was established and carries something like $480,000,000 in its vaults. Just now this money in its vaults, is running at night and day turning out 260,000 silver dollars every twenty-four hours.

"For years San Francisco had its own way of doing business, of incurring debts and settling them, of handling coin and gold dust and computing values and of defying gold and scoring copper and nickel," said J. Leland Steinman, secretary of the Pacific Coast Numismatic Society, recently, discussing the early and romantic gold days.

Coin Circulation Slight

"Because of its remoteness and the astonishing character of its first years of growth, San Francisco was by no means flush of current coin in its pioneer days. Previous to the discovery of gold and the consequent rapid influx of population there was little coin in circulation in California and that little in the towns of Monterey, San Diego and Los Angeles.

"Payments throughout the country were frequently made in cattle, hides and farm products. "With its Mexican memories it was natural that California should retain many of its old tokens of associations, and it so happened after the secession Mexican doubloons or ounces and Mexican pesos or pillar dollars were the principal coins in use.

Gold Dust Freely Used
"The original value of the doubloon was $16, but in San Francisco it was received for $15.75. After the discovery of gold that metal in its natural state became the currency. Gold dust was the common form in which it was dealt in, and in 1848-1849 the bankers' rates were:

"For grain dust, $15.50 to $15.75 an ounce.
Quicksilver dust, $14.50 to $14.75 an ounce.

"This was when coin was paid for the dust. When the banks received it on deposit they valued it at $16 an ounce and repaid it at the same rate.

"Everything was gold. There was actually more of it than people knew what to do with. Bags of gold dust were handed about as freely as cake. The gamblers at the public saloons used them as stakes and guessed at the weight. Men had sublime indifference to the smaller coins and talked indifferently of dust and dollars. There was nothing less received for any service, however slight, than a dollar; for any article however trifling than twenty-five cents.

"The smaller silver coins of whatever denominations and of every country were all alike bits and passed for the same value. As for copper money, it was a curiosity and had no value, this kind of money being supposed to cause hard luck for its owner.

"With gold matters were quite different. Dust continued to be plentiful, but coin continued to be scarce. Finally the banks took hold, and as the only way to settle the difficulty began the coinage of private gold.

"There were fully fifteen private mints in California which operated from 1849 up to and including 1855. Numerous varieties of private issues, differing in design from the regular United States coins only in trifling minor details that would escape the attention of the casual observer, were circulated by them.

"The best known of these pioneer coins is the quintuple eagle ($50), or as it is generally known by the euphonious title 'slug.' The first of this specie was issued by Moffat & Company in 1851. This was the octagonal coin, bearing the stamp of United States Assayer Augustus Humbert."

OUCH! BACKACHE! RUB LUMBAGO OR PAIN FROM BACK

Rub stiffness away with small trial bottle of old
"St. Jacobs Oil"

Ah! Pain is gone!
Quickly?—Yes. Almost instant relief from soreness, stiffness, lameness and pain follows a gentle rubbing with "St. Jacobs Oil."

Rub this soothing penetrating oil right on your painful back, and like magic, relief comes. "St. Jacobs Oil" is a harmless backache, lumbago and sciatica cure which never disappoints and doesn't burn the skin.

Straighten up! Quit complaining!
Stop those torturous "stitches." In a moment you will forget that you ever had a weak back, because it won't hurt or be stiff or lame. Don't suffer! Get a small trial bottle of old, honest "St. Jacobs Oil" from your druggist now and get this lasting relief.—Advertisement.

COMMENT THAT'S ALL

Glendale Realtors to Action!
It's Comparison That Counts
Canned and Preserved Eat Fruit and Nuts!

—By Gil A. Cowan

A NEW EPOCH in real estate organization work will mark the convention of California realtors, starting January 19, at Hotel Oakland. The sessions will be open to all realty dealers, it is authentically stated, but delegates only will be entitled to vote.

From a newspaper man's standpoint, one of the big features of this convention is the courtesy extended to real estate editors. It is stated that ample provision will be made for them and the convention will be a source of great news and inspiration. Would that there were more organizations recognizing the profession.

Many distinguished guests will be present, "own your own home day" observed and every angle of the business of selling real estate will be studied by the various speakers.
Now wouldn't it be a great idea if the Glendale Realty Board will arrange to take every person interested in this great profession, load them on a special car of Southern California's special train and advertise this city at Oakland.

You have just twenty-four hours in which to act, realtors! Doesn't a trip to San Francisco sound good, or are sales too numerous to be neglected?

Certainly sales were never so good in Southern California as they are today. The intensive subdivision campaign now in progress likely goes unequalled in the history of the world.

To the unsophisticated eastern tourist, for the first time in the sunny southland, it looks ludicrous, this idea of selling mountain sides and valleys of virgin soil. But for those who visited California during last year—1915—and returned this season; well, they are the ones who are buying most heavily.

It is the comparison that counts.
Ten years ago Gardner junction in Hollywood was a wheat field. Now it is one of the most populous sections of the city of Los Angeles.
What wonders a decade will bring forth here!

Comment of ours was cut short yesterday! Sometimes it doesn't appear, but just to fool you someday you will read a column that was written weeks ago and remains standing in case of emergency. And you will likely never realize it was cooked or canned, preserved or pickled.

Frankly, there are times when brevity is the soul of wit. The shorter, the sweeter, don't you know?
That doesn't explain yesterday's dilemma, however. In the first place all that was written for the day appeared. It was ruthlessly yanked from the typewriter when the writer was away at one of the several sessions in which sewage was discussed in particular and little of everything talked over generally.

At any rate, several hours elapsed and it was decided by the office force that what was written would be well enough alone.

Today two lines more than usual will be written for good measure.

"Eat a plate of ice cream every day" is the popularized slogan, but let Californians go one better and eat an orange every evening before retiring. Then eat another upon arising in the morning.

Get acquainted with the luscious fruits of the vicinity in which you live—and live forever. Nuts are an ideal food for these chilly days, too.
They are a natural uncooked food.

A delightfully wholesome story about two Los Angeles girls is now coming to light—

The Duncan Sisters, graduates of the King's Daughters Day Nursery of Los Angeles—so as to speak—are now telling their experience of dancing around with the Prince of Wales.

Under the tutelage of Ellen Beach Yaw for four years they acquired much of her personality and developed their own natural ability which made them London favorites.

The Prince of Wales had the Duncan sisters added to many guest lists because they were refreshingly delightful company. No, they didn't drink, didn't smoke—just danced their way into the hearts of royalty.

The lords and ladies naturally became jealous, for in their internal formality the poor prince is being bored to death. As he told one of the girls, from midnight to 4 a. m. was his own time, but he earned it for he must arise at 8 a. m. each day. No wonder he stays away from stiff old London and trots the globe like a hound at the hunt.

Miss Florence Heacock Will Entertain Class

The members of the Live Cole class of the First Christian-church Sunday school will hold its regular monthly business meeting and social on Friday night of this week at the home of Miss Florence Heacock, 709 East Windsor road. At that time an official report will be made of last week's benefit entertainment, which was successfully staged by the class in the church building.

Baby Daughter for A. Cunningham Home

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs.
Anderson Cunningham of South Glendale avenue are rejoicing with them over the arrival of a baby daughter, that was born to Mrs. Cunningham Sunday, at a hospital, Mrs.
Cunningham was Miss Isabel Lyons.

Credit Association Seeks New Members

Forty members of the Glendale Merchants' Credit Association enjoyed luncheon yesterday noon and launched a membership campaign to double the ranks. Frank H. Pilling, secretary of the organization, pleaded for more work—that is, additional lists of prospective customers for Glendale stores; also more calls regarding credit which will be cheerfully answered. The business men find the noon hour sessions very interesting, from all evidences.

By keeping a few packages of Cornell Panels handy you are always prepared to make quick alterations or repairs in the home, office, store, factory or on the farm. Without muss or litter, Cornell can be nailed to the joists or studding or over damaged plaster and the moment it is up, you can move right in.

Cornell is considered the most beautiful wallboard made because of its fashionable "Oatmeal Finish"; and it comes already primed for painting ("Mill-Primed") which saves much work and expense.

Made of pure wood fiber by our exclusive "Triple-Sizing" process, Cornell has triple the ordinary amount of resistance against moisture, expansion, contraction, sound and change in temperature.

Why accept ordinary wallboard when Cornell costs no more and so far exceeds?

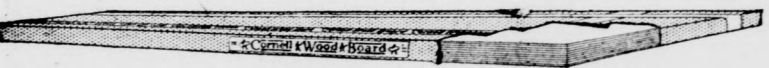

Ask the Cornell Dealer shown below for sample and latest quotations.

Interesting Booklet on Marines Issued Free

An interesting booklet, "The U. S. Marine Corps in the World War," has been prepared for free distribution to Marines who served during the late national emergency. The booklet gives facts and figures relative to the Marines' participation in the war, including statistics of the number of men enlisted from each state, decorations awarded and similar data. The figures were compiled by Major Edwin N. McClellan, historical officer of the Marine Corps, and great care has been taken to make the booklet absolutely accurate. Every ex-Marine in Glendale and vicinity who desires a copy should call at the Marine Corps recruiting station, Sixth and Main streets, Los Angeles. The number to be distributed is limited, and it is probable that no further editions will be printed.

GLENDAL GRILL IS SOLD

The Glendale Grill, 1413 1/2 South San Fernando Road, has been sold by T. M. Edwards to J. L. Andrews, who took possession yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. Edwards expect to move to their property at Burbank. Mr. Andrews is from San Francisco, but has been in Los Angeles county since last February. He came to southern Glendale about a month ago and entered the employ of Mr. Edwards as a chef. He expects to make a few alterations in the interior of the cafe and is preparing new menus.

NEW FILLING STATION

The Standard Oil company's new filling station at 1523 South Brand boulevard, across the street from fire station No. 2, is now being rushed to completion. A substantial fire proof galvanized iron office is now ready for a coat of paint, the excavation has been completed for the underground gasoline tanks and the premises are being graded for the driveway.

THEATRE IS NOW GROCERY

From theatre to grocery—that's the transformation made by W. L. Anderson and his son, J. H. Anderson. They have turned the Bijou theatre, 1420 South Fernando road, into a grocery establishment. Where once the latest thrillers were shown, now the best sellers are offered, say the Andersons.

CLOSING REED FACTORY

H. E. Hutteball and his son, D. L. Hutteball are closing the Tropico Furniture factory at 1508 South San Fernando road and it is understood that they are moving to Berkeley.

ERNIE DUTTON IS BACK

Ernie Dutton has returned to 113 East Laurel street after several weeks in Calexico. He says Glendale looks just a little better than Imperial Valley.

GEORGE SCHRAM RETURNS

George E. Schram, realtor at 1402 South San Fernando road, motored back from Ventura Sunday afternoon.

WILLIAM MILLER IS ILL

William Miller was sick yesterday and unable to work at his smithy, 413 West Los Feliz Road.

NO DROP, LUMBER PRICES

There is little chance of lumber prices coming down in the near future, according to George Bentley of the Bentley-Schoeneman Lumber company, 460 West Los Feliz Road. He stated yesterday afternoon that building activities in the east had begun to pick up and that quite a bit of western lumber was being shipped through the Panama Canal at the present time. Therefore, Mr. Bentley thinks that any change in lumber prices will be upward.

The Bentley-Schoeneman Lumber company now has 200,000 more feet of lumber en route to its yard. Its office is a busy place and thronged daily with contractors. Mr. Bentley says they come there because they like the company—but one of the builders said that was wrong—they came there to get lumber.

J. W. MUELLER SATISFIED

"Business has been very good, very good indeed," declared J. W. Mueller, proprietor of a butcher shop at 1414 South San Fernando Road yesterday afternoon and he opened his cash book to show how his business has been increasing steadily since he opened the store August 8. Because his volume of business has doubled since the second week in August, Mr. Mueller feels well satisfied. In fact, he admits that he is doing much better than he expected.

B. V. BRASHEAR IS ILL

B. V. Brashear, proprietor of the South Glendale Variety Store at 1413 South San Fernando Road, is still confined to his home at 1017 Melrose avenue on account of illness. Fred Frey, his father-in-law, is taking charge of the store there until Mr. Brashear's return.

R. DANNER ON OUTING

Robert Danner and his son, Goldburn, 1631 Gardena avenue, went to Catalina Island Sunday as members of an outing given by the Butchers' Union of San Pedro. Mr. Danner reported a thoroughly enjoyable time and stated that Avalon seemed to be quite lively.

G. W. COX IS WELL PLEASED

G. W. Cox, who recently opened the South Glendale Dry Goods store at 1510 South San Fernando road, reports himself well pleased with business so far. In fact, he remarked yesterday afternoon that it had been better than he anticipated.

SPORTS CHATTER By BILL UNMACK PACIFIC SPORTS SERVICE

Following the policy of the last two years, the University of California will again have an eastern college track and field team come to Berkeley, Calif., for a dual track meet. In 1920 and 1921 the University of Illinois track men have made the trip, and the team has once more been asked to meet the Californians, April 8th being the date set for the meet. If Illinois is unable to make the trip, some other team will be invited, and Wisconsin has been mentioned as a possibility. The track schedule as announced by Graduate Manager, Lute Nichols for the California varsity is as follows:

March 4, Interclass championships.
March 11, vs. Olympic club of San Francisco.
March 18, vs. University of Southern California at Los Angeles.
March 25, open.
April 1, vs. All-Star picked team of southern California colleges at Berkeley, Calif.
April 8, vs. Illinois or other eastern team at Berkeley.
April 15, annual California vs. Stanford meet, Berkeley.

The recognition of swimming by the Pacific Coast Conference colleges has already had a beneficial effect. For the first time colleges of the Pacific northwest are arranging dual meets, and they will also enter teams in the first Pacific coast conference swimming championship which will be held at the Stanford university tank in April.

The University of Washington is perfecting plans for the season and has definitely decided on a dual meet with the Oregon agricultural college at Corvallis, Ore. At the present time swimming is on the "minor sports" lists at Washington, but in due course it is bound to graduate to the "major sports" list just as it has done at California and Stanford.

The University of Washington eight-oared crew, which will row California varsity in April for the Pacific coast college championship, will be the heaviest crew that has ever rowed for Washington. Zeke Clark will be the heaviest man in the boat, tipping the scales at 202 pounds. Bob Ingram, the heaviest man of last year's crew, will again be in the boat and weighs 192 pounds.

The crew this year will be stroked by Mike Murphy who will also captain the eight. Rowland France, Clarence Magnusson and Dinty Moore are three more veterans who are back at college. With six veterans of last year back in the slides, and the fact that this crew was only defeated by five feet in the race by California, the prospects of the Washington crew are considered exceptionally good. The crew has a still further advantage over California this year in the fact that the race will be rowed over the Washingtonian's own course at Seattle.

British and French Can't Agree on Plans for Parley, Believed

By EARLE C. REEVES
Written for International News Service LONDON, Jan. 17.—The fate of the economic conference at Genoa will depend on the outcome of conversations between Premier Lloyd George and M. Poincare, French premier-designate, at Paris, according to views advanced by British officials today.

There is a growing feeling of pessimism that the British and French premiers will be unable to agree upon plans for the economic conference. It is understood that the two premiers would concentrate their attention on the proposed Anglo-French treaty of alliance, but in addition they will touch upon the following other matters:

First—The future attitude of the French government on German indemnity and sanctions in the event of non-payment.
Second—The guarantees France will demand from Russia for the latter's participation in the Genoa conference.
It was understood in circles close to the government that Premier Lloyd George would offer M. Poincare modifications in the proposed Anglo-French pact and would offer to extend it to include Belgium.

Wallace Reid in 'Rent Free' Feature of T. D. & L. Bill

Again the T. D. & L. theatre opens with a "big" show—Wallace Reid in "Rent Free," a comedy picture heralded as Wally's "best yet," and one of the most pleasing pictures produced in recent times. "Rent Free" besides offering the splendid personality of the popular star, breezes with laughter, amusing situations, comical acts, joy and the general air of happiness. It is guaranteed to take away the "blues" from anyone and to "tickle you to death." It is for laughs—no tears—just uproarious laughter—clean entertainment throughout. Ralph Allan says "it's a great show" and that he knows all Glendale will want to see it.

For the first time since "The Charm School," which was produced two years ago, Lila Lee is again leading woman in support of Wallace Reid, playing the leading feminine role in the star's new Paramount picture, "Rent Free." Several other familiar faces will be seen in the picture.

Kinograms, the world's events in pictures, a special comedy, "Assorted Heroes," and "Screen Snapshots" make up this entire enjoyable program.

A will to have what one wants—with a perception of methods—will get it.

Harry Duffield Is 'Brought Back' by Picture Production

One of the last productions in which the late Harry Duffield played before the camera is "For Those We Love," starring Betty Compton at the Glendale Theatre today. Mr. Duffield was so well known to Glendale that to see him taking a part in the photodrama tonight will be little less than ghostly.

Lon Chaney also will be seen in this picture while George Cooper, Bert Woodruff, Walter Morosco and Frank Campeau, all known by local people, have parts in this story of a beautiful girl who fights and faces disgrace for the happiness of those she loved. The main streets of the many typical American towns are portrayed.

Latest International News: "Shaken Up," a folio comedy; and "Old Dynamite," a thrilling western, complete the big bill. There is sufficient interest to bring out splendid mid-week crowds.

George T. DeLong Has Birthday Party at His Home Here

George T. DeLong, well known realty broker, has revealed the fact that he has a birthday every year. He celebrated last Wednesday night with a party at his home, 503 Lincoln avenue, with dancing as the principal diversion. A midnight supper was served to the many friends who bade him another happy year as they departed.

Since then Mr. DeLong has been so busy selling Dahlia Heights lots, for which his firm is Glendale agent, that he almost forgot to mention the affair. It's business before pleasure always with him.

Egan, 343 West Harvard street, 367 West Colorado avenue; Charles Lang, 1030 San Rafael avenue, 1114 Boynton street; D. Caldwell, 716 South Brand boulevard, 827 East Lomita avenue; C. A. Kaim, 104 North Everett street, 609 South Glendale avenue; W. E. Wagner, 123 West Cypress street to Los Angeles; H. E. Hutteball, 1508 South San Fernando Road to Los Angeles.

The following are requests for installation of meters: J. S. Thompson, 111 South Columbus avenue; L. P. Clover, 943 North Louise street.

The following wish service: Mary Bennett, rear 128 South Jackson street; C. W. Crosson, 114 East Lomita avenue; Charles Lang, 1114 South Boynton street; Jack Dively, 117 North Keawood street; F. J. Struc, 927 South Brand boulevard; Nettie Kaim, 609 South Glendale avenue; W. R. Veitch, 615 1/2 North Brand boulevard; W. M. Butler, 440 Oak street; H. J. Vail, 745 East Wilson avenue; L. D. Smith, 129 West Windsor Road; E. Breier, 1128 East Lexington Drive.

After all, there are few better means of encouraging industry than by assuming a mortgage.

JUST BEFORE BIG STORM

"Whispering Clouds" is the title of a picturesque calendar now being distributed by T. B. Reavis of 1528 South San Fernando road. It depicts an English country hamlet just before a thunder storm. None of the natives seem to be worried about the paint on their houses.

SAYS BUSINESS IS GOOD

"Business looks better than ever," remarked C. S. Jordan of the Glendale Sash and Door House, 1514 South San Fernando Road, yesterday afternoon. He called attention to the fact that there seems to be no let-up in the demand for doors and windows to supply all the new homes under construction.

Open Door Policy Being Observed by Postmaster Hays

By L. A. FARNSWORTH
Written for International News Service
WASHINGTON—When Postmaster General Hays ordered his postmasters a few days ago to oil up the hinges of the doors to their private offices and to institute the "open door" policy he knew what he was talking about as a practical proposition. For he had first tried it out himself, and reported to his associates that it "worked fine."

The "open door" is one of the elements in the general policy of "humanizing the department" instituted by Hays. "The postoffice belongs to the people, and they have the right to see the postmaster at any time," is the theory upon which he goes.

So, in line with this theory, the Postmaster General "receives" on several afternoons each week. He finds time to talk for five, ten or fifteen minutes with all sorts of persons who have matters in hand which they feel they ought to communicate to the postmaster general personally.

These persons run the gamut of importance from congressmen to ordinary employees of the postoffice department and plain citizens. They sit in the big reception room outside the postmaster general's office and wait their turn. Hays himself sits at a desk in a corner of the same room and calls them one by one.

On a recent afternoon two congressmen, a civil war veteran retired from the postal service, several women (one of them a negro) and two newspaper men were seen in the room, along with more than a score of others.

"I'm retired, but just the same I'd like to get something to do to keep me busy," the civil war veteran was heard to remark to a companion. "Been with the department a long time and want to see if Hays can do something for me."

Others were heard discussing postal patronage with each other. "Couldn't get my man over at Blank," one remarked. "They're a lot stricter in civil service these days. Well, maybe it's the best way," he added, resignedly.

Others, too, waiting in various parts of the room, commented more or less audibly on their particular difficulties. Whatever they were, each appeared satisfied after he had had his little chat with the postmaster general.

No One Above Laws, Says Pastor in Sermon

COLUMBUS, Ohio—"The fundamental secret of democracy is that no one is above the law," declared Rev. Charles A. Alden, pastor of First Universalist Church here, recently in a sermon marked by an attack upon the Anti-Saloon League and the assailing of the Ku Klux Klan, striking miners and other organizations for trying to "take the law into their own hands."

"The quotation: 'All men are created equal' means that no man is allowed to take the law into his own hands," continued the Rev. Dr. Alden.

"Even the Anti-Saloon League has no such authority," he asserted, commending the Supreme Court for refusing to recognize the right of officers to unwarranted searching of homes in the attempt to enforce the Eighteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

"It is idle to talk about enforcing the Eighteenth Amendment to the Constitution by breaking the Fourth Amendment. If the Eighteenth Amendment cannot be enforced without breaking personal and property rights already guaranteed then there is conflict between the amendment and the Constitution."

"As it stood the Supreme Court declined to recognize it. Most of us are glad of this decision. It is unwise leadership that reopens the debate."

Natives of Africa Are Not Beautiful, Says This Woman

Mrs. Cecil Clark Davis

By MARGERY REE
Written for International News Service
NEW YORK—Beauty may draw us with a single hair, but Professor Starr, of the University of Chicago, insists that this hair, in order to beckon to him, must have a kink in it.

Only in Africa is the fatal gift distributed freely, says the authority on anthropology, whose declaration that American women are not beautiful has met with prompt reprisals on his Chicago campus and elsewhere.

To the denials and comments on Professor Starr's dictum, which have been forthcoming from prominent artists, we add the opinion of a well-known woman portrait painter and globe trotter, Mrs. Cecil Clark Davis.

Mrs. Davis may speak with authority by reason not only of her studies of American types of women, but also by right of her extensive explorations into the parts of Africa where women walk "in beauty, like the night," according to Professor Starr.

Never Seen Beautiful Black— "Professor Starr might not consider me an authority," said Mrs. Davis, "but I have been all over Africa—north, south, east and west, in the usual places and in the remote ones. I have never seen any native women that I could honestly call beautiful. In the Congo they are poor, tragic-looking things."

"But in America we have a great deal of beauty. Our young women have a singular loveliness apart from any consideration of face or feature. It is that very 'kink' look they all have, the feeling of power one senses in them."

"Our American woman is so well dressed, so well shod, so well turned out. She is so right and straightforward. She does all things well."

"Beauty of today is an intelligent beauty. Our young woman is amazingly older than any of the rest of us, and yet she seems a marvelous child as she drives along, as so many girls did during the war, in a big eight horse-power car, guiding the machine with her little hands. It is their sense of power and achievement that often lends beauty to these fine young creatures."

"She is neither ugly nor artificial, the whole modern tendency is just a reaction from fifty years of stifling Victorianism. All societies go to these extremes. We shall swing back again to a more staid existence. These great liberties of today are not bad signs."

S. L. JACKSON NOW CONNECTED WITH PSENNER-DOLL

Autoelectric Company to Move Into New Home, Corner Brand and Chestnut

Announcement is made today of the Glendale Motor and Automobile Shop, a new service for users of power in this vicinity to be provided in connection with the Psenner-Doll Autoelectric company at 610 East Broadway. S. L. Jackson, known to hundreds as "Jack," the electrician, at a well known storage battery agency here, has become a member of the firm, having had years of experience with the Willard and International Electric company stations. He also is a member of the Association of Electrical Engineers.

The Psenner-Doll company, which handles the famous Philadelphia storage batteries, is having a brick building erected at the corner of Chestnut street and Brand boulevard for their principal plant, although they will maintain a branch at their present location for a large patronage in the eastern part of Glendale.

To Cost $10,000

The Rommel Construction company has the contract for the new electrical concern, S. C. Walters being the owner. It will be a one story brick structure, 50 by 90 feet, and cost $10,000.

The motor department for the time being will specialize on all AC windings and induction motor windings. Motors will be bought and sold and as soon as the new building is occupied the manufacture of wireless apparatus will be commenced.

Hubert R. Easton to Be Paper's Manager

Hubert R. Easton, in charge of the International News Service leased wire in The Glendale Evening News office, has resigned to become general manager of The Canandaigua, N. Y., Daily Messenger, established in 1797, recently purchased by his brother, J. A. Easton, former general manager of The Canton, Ohio, News, now sales manager for King Feature Syndicate, New York.

Hubert R. Easton took charge of the leased wire in The Evening News office at its installation. He has had a thorough newspaper training and will, it is predicted, make a big success of The Messenger. That paper will also take the International News Service and will, in addition, install features and new machinery. The Messenger is declared to be the oldest paper in America west of the Hudson river. It is published in a county seat, surrounded by a farming community and a number of educational institutions. The county has more than 52,000 population and, under its new management, the paper will, it is expected, make rapid progress.

Before coming to The Evening News, Mr. Easton was established at Van Nuys, where he has many friends. He leaves for the east in a few days.

J. R. Misllove is now in charge of the leased wire in The Evening News office, coming here from Los Angeles. He is searching for a suitable house in Glendale in order that he may bring his family here.

Dollar Dinner on Dining Cars Drops to 80 Cents, Report

"How a dollar dinner dropped" is the story being told purchasers of Southern Pacific railroad tickets by H. L. LeGrand, agent at the Pacific Electric station in Glendale.

"Yes, they have dropped to 80 cents on our dining cars," he informs the overland tourist. The plate order consists of choice of meat or fish, and two vegetables, according to the latest Southern Pacific bulletin.

And if you have any Rotarian friends in the west write them that there will be reduced rates, contingent upon an attendance of 150 or more at the national convention from all California, Arizona and Nevada points.

Offer Rewards for Slayers of Priests; People Are Aroused

Editor The Evening News—The decent citizenry of the United States and Canada has been outraged by the recent murders in which Catholic priests were the innocent and unsuspecting victims. A particularly brutal murder was that committed by Andrew Rolando, when he killed the Rev. Father A. B. Belknap in Lead City, South Dakota, on October 26, 1921.

Black Hills Council of the Knights of Columbus, Lead City, S. D., issues an appeal, subscribed to by the constituted authorities of justice in Lawrence county, S. D., to all Knights of Columbus to aid, so far as possible, in locating Andrew Rolando, murderer of Father Belknap. Rolando is 5 feet 10 inches, weighs about 150 pounds, is slightly stooped, has heavy light brown hair, usually worn long, combed back from forehead; eyes light brown, blonding into gray; complexion sallow, gold-filled front teeth; speaks with slight accent; of Italian parentage. When last seen was wearing brown cap, usually pulled down over eyes; brown sweater, khaki shirt, blue overalls, brown walking shoes, and on little finger of right hand ring with green setting. He is described as a crank on firearms and photography. Formerly lived at Christopher, Ill., where his father, Frank Rolando, and step-mother, now live. Andrew Rolando also worked in the coal mines near Collinsville, Ill. Also reported to have lived at Tilden, Ill. Private papers show his acquaintance with Miss Jessie Klam or Klemm of Virden, Ill., and Miss Dora Gasperi, Box 201, Tilden, Ill. Often boasted of his experience as a hobo and of his ability to beat his way on trains. After his flight he was trailed from Lead City, S. D., to Edgemont, S. D., a distance of 100 miles, beating his way on trains.

Rewards aggregating $4,000 have been offered by Lawrence county, S. D., the South Dakota Knights of Columbus, Cristoforo Colombo Society, and citizens of Lawrence county, John T. Plenty of Protection From Flood Promised

There is no danger of floods breaking through the levee on the Ross and Thom' ranch and causing any damage since it was repaired, according to City Manager W. H. Reeves. He says that the new job is good insurance.

A barricade of planks, brush and rock has been placed along the levee and in front of it a ten-foot ditch. This will carry away surplus waters. Dirt from it furnished a covering for the brush and rock.

Material for the work was paid for by Judge Ross and the city did the constructing.

Leslie Wright Plans to Bring Family Here

Leslie Wright of Warren, Ohio, who came to Glendale a few weeks ago and is now associated with J. F. Standard in the real estate business, is so well satisfied with Glendale that he is now planning to bring his family from the east and make this their home. Mr. Wright is located at present with Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Albert, 371 West Lexington.

One form of flattery is to ask others for information instead of going to the dictionary or the encyclopedia.

DUDLEY PIGG HOME TO BE BUILT ON ENGLISH LINES

Residence at 638 West Wilson Avenue to Be Attractive; Some Building Notes

Dudley Pigg, who was recently married, believes it pays to have a father who is a contractor. His dad, E. W. Pigg of 405 North Maryland avenue, has now started work at 638 West Wilson avenue upon a five-room home which will follow the lines of English architecture. It will be painted gray outside and the interior finish will be painted with white enamel. There will be a tile bath.

Space for Everything

Contractor E. W. Pigg says the residence he has just completed at 411 North Maryland avenue is one of the most complete and up-to-date houses ever constructed in Glendale. There is space for everything in the "full cabinet" kitchen—including air to ventilate the pots and pans.

Breakfast Room Tiled

A dining room for the family mascot is a feature of the new six-room bungalow being completed at 409 North Glendale avenue. Contractor E. W. Pigg says the tile floor on the breakfast room is so constructed that "a dog could eat his dinner upon the floor without getting the floor spotted with grease."

Spanish Style of Home

A Spanish style residence is being built at 903 South Central avenue by Contractor E. W. Pigg for Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Furst of 505 North Jackson street. They are anxious to get the opinion of T. M., Jr., upon the new home.

Home for A. Johnson

Contractor A. L. Fryer of 421 Riverdale Drive expects to have Arthur Johnson's new five-room stucco home in the Verdugo Woodland completed in about two weeks.
